For over 50 years WESTMINSTER CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC has served the Central New Jersey area with on-campus and community-based music instruction. The community music school of Rider University, it offers a superior faculty and tailors lessons, workshops and classes to the needs of the individual student.

Music study at the Conservatory provides a unique opportunity for musical growth and is available to students of all ages and stages of advancement. It also offers many opportunities to perform through its community choral, and orchestral ensembles. In addition to its programs on the Westminster College campus in Princeton, the Conservatory offers classes at the Saint Ann School in Lawrenceville.
